Study Abroad Photo Contest Guidelines and Eligibility Requirements:
* Students entering the contest must be enrolled in a StudyMississippi member school (Ole Miss is a member.)
* American students should submit photos taken abroad while participating on a Mississippi College or University's study abroad program
* Entries must be an original work taken by the individual submitting the photo, images may not be digitally enhanced or altered in any way.
* Students should select a photo they feel best captures the essence of their study abroad experience abroad.
* Students may email one photo to studymsconsortium@gmail.com with the contest category followed by their first and last name in the email subject line. Example: "Study Abroad - Emma Stone"
* In the body of the email students should include the following:
  1. Full name of student submitting photo
  2. The university where they are currently enrolled
  3. The name of the program and the college/university that offers the program; i.e. "The Abbey Program, The University of Southern Mississippi"
  4. The title of their photo
  5. The country/location of where the photo was taken; i.e. "The Louvre museum, Paris, France"
  6. Brief description (no more than 5 sentences) about why they selected the photo

How are the winners selected?
- The contest winners will be selected through an online public vote.
- Voting will be open between November 1-15, 2012 via the StudyMississippi Facebook fan page: http://www.facebook.com/StudyMS.
- Two separate photo albums for the 2012 contests will be created. The number of "likes" each photo receives will determine the winner in each category. Likes will stop counting toward the final vote for each category at 5 p.m. November 15.
- For questions or troubleshooting contact Jessica Lamb at jessica.lamb@usm.edu.

This award will recognize students for their exceptional experiences abroad and in Mississippi, which they will showcase through photography.

Winners will be announced at the culmination of International Education Week 2012 on November 16.

They will also be recognized at a public ceremony, and will receive an Apple iPad 3!!!

Entries are due no later than midnight, October 14, 2012
